California Campus Compact Executive Board Selects Two New Members

California State University, Los Angeles President William A. Covino, and Saint Mary's College of California President James A. Donahue join the 2018-2019 California Campus Compact Executive Board.

June 12, 2018

Hayward, CA – California Campus Compact announced today that its Executive Board has selected two new members: President William A. Covino (of California State University, Los Angeles) and President James A. Donahue (of Saint Mary's College). They will be serving three-year terms, beginning July 1, 2018.

California Campus Compact (CACC) Executive Director Elaine K. Ikeda said, "As we enter CACC's 30th anniversary year, our organization's mission is even more important. Presidents Covino and Donahue will join a committed Executive Board who demonstrates leadership in championing the role that higher education can and should play in educating and preparing students for active participation in our democracy. We are excited to have them join our outstanding board of college leaders."

"I know that Bill Covino and Jim Donahue will approach their new roles on the Board with tremendous energy and commitment," said California Campus Compact Chair and California State University, East Bay President Leroy Morishita. "On behalf of my colleagues, I welcome Bill and Jim to the Board. We all look forward to working with them in the years ahead."
