

Attention Student Leaders!

Join the Social Innovation Generation: Student Leadership Initiative

Apply for Grant $$$$ to:

- Aid in California's recovery from the economic crisis
- Put your innovative ideas into change-making action
- Help local nonprofits thrive into the future
- Meet other inspired student leaders from across California

California Campus Compact is a statewide higher education organization dedicated to educating students to change our world. We believe that the energy and spirit to serve, lead and transform cascades among college students throughout California.

Through our Social Innovation Generation: Student Leadership Initiative, we are seeking to fund up to 6 student-initiated, student-led service and service-learning projects statewide that will help those who have been hardest hit by California's economic crisis and that will help California emerge from the current economic crisis with a more innovative, green and sustainable economic future.

- Please visit www.cacampuscompact.org to review the full grant proposal guidelines and application.
- To be eligible to receive a grant, student leaders must work with their service-learning or student affairs center.
- Project proposals must be submitted by your campus's service-learning director or student affairs director.
- Only one proposal per campus will be accepted.
- California Campus Compact will fund each selected proposal for up to $10,000.
- The proposal deadline is Wednesday, May 5, 2010.
